New Product Forum

New products are displayed in a separate area on the showcase floor. In addition, twenty of the products are selected to be featured in our New Product Forum, directly following the Wednesday afternoon Professional Development presentation. Each supplier chosen will be given up to three minutes to discuss their product and its uses.

To participate in the New Product Forum:

Complete this form and fax back to PMANC at 916-451-9150.

Ship a sample of the product by April 19, 2010 to:

New Product Forum
